F.C.C. QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS REPORT
Quarter 4, 2009
(October 1-December 31, 2009)

ELEVEN ISSUES IDENTIFIED

1. COMMUNITY VALUES/DEVELOPMENT & MENTORS/ECONOMY.

* The restrained economy is affecting all areas of community development, but individuals & organizations work to provide help to those less fortunate through monetary & material donations. Salvation Army distributed over 3000 grocery gift packages during the holidays.

*Businesses are struggling in an uncertain economy. Examples of closing businesses include Starbucks Coffee closed six shops in WI, including one in Appleton Fox River Mall. Marinette Marine laid off 100 more workers due to slow business. New Page Paper Mill in Niagara closed, leaving 250 employees looking for new jobs. But local developers organize to re-build vacated buildings, ie Copps Grocery store planned in vacant Appleton Valley Fair bldg.

*Revitalization of Green Bay's downtown business district continues at a slower pace, but recently there was dedication of attractive housing for residents and community parks, and new businesses. The federal stimulus plan was anticipated to improve construction downtown.

*Green Bay City officials & residents work to maintain a facility for the increasing number of homeless. St. John's church continues as refuge within the city limits. Salvation Army finding more residents needing their services.

*President-Elect Obama announced assistance for small businesses and families in the form of tax relief and additional funding.

*Wisconsin residents celebrate Veterans Day on November 11th.

2. CRIME/VIOLENCE, Including Law Enforcement and Protection

*Law enforcement reports increase in crime, particularly burglaries which relate to the "hard economic times" people are experiencing. Grocery stores and gas station robberies increased throughout Green Bay area. Neighborhood groups are formed to work together to stay alert to report suspected criminals. Businesses band together also to help one another.

Green Bay Fire Department and Green Bay Police offer community seminars and open houses to provide increased security information to residents.

3. EDUCATION

Area schools were severely affected by student absentees due to flu illness, regular and H1N1. Schools closed (Ashwaubenon H.S., Green Bay East H.S., Appleton schools, Crandon School District, and athletic events in Green Bay) for several days, and cleaning crews disinfected all desks and building work surfaces.

State school districts reduce expenses by closing schools or consolidating. Example – Franklin Elementary in GB could be changed to K-12 School. Students creatively raise money for non-academic school programs, such as Milwaukee Swim Team gets help from Football Team to raise money. Schools are waiting for additional funding promised by President Obama's Stimulus Plan.

The Golden Apple Awards Campaign kicked off in area schools with presentation of chocolate apples to area teachers.

Increased job unemployment resulted in increased enrollments in area Technical Colleges.

4. ENVIRONMENTAL CONCERNS

Wind turbine farms continue to cause citizen concern, but proposals continue. New wind farm projects are placed on hold in Calumet Cty. Residents are concerned about environmental noise, wildlife disruption & property value. Others promote the business interest based on environmental advantages.

Due to severe weather conditions of wind, cold temperature, snow, sleet, caused hardship to residence in the area during Qtr 4, 2009. Cold temps in December freeze area lakes earlier than normal.

Reports by DNR of AsianCarp just miles from the Great Lakes, which is a severe threat to Lake Michigan natural resource.

NASA's shuttle flight from Cape Canaveral, FL on Monday, Nov 16th took six astronauts thru a successful lift-off and headed for the international space station for 11 days. This will likely be the last of six remaining planned space flights.

5. FAMILIES, INCLUDING CHILDREN & TEENS

Families support soldiers on duty in Iraq. Green Bay students create cards to send to military personnel serving in Iraq. Community groups create shoe boxes to send to military personnel as Christmas holiday approaches.

 As the economy continues to slide downward, more families opt to rent rather than build or buy new homes. More families requesting financial help with energy bills reported by WPS.

 Families still opt to stay closer to home on weekends to control expenses, due to the declining economy. Increased number of visitors recorded to The NEW Zoo, Bay Beach in Green Bay, Heritage Hill, The Green Bay Neville Public Museum.

Families have to tighten their budgets. Parents tighten their budgets as food prices & rent increase. Often they cannot afford child care costs. Investors see years of savings decrease. Senior citizens are discouraged as their 401(k)'s take huge hits. Some retirees are forced to live with their adult children.

6. GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS & ACCOUNTABILITY

 President Obama speaks in news conferences covering measures he will take as President of the United States - to stabilize the economy, bring home the troops in Iraq, increase jobs and decrease unemployment, and provide healthcare for all citizens. President Obama directs additional troops to Afghanistan.

The League of Women voters held a forum for the public at the Brown County Library to focus on the controversial issue of Health Care Reform. A record number of attendees showed the concern that Health Care will be affordable. Or will Insurance Companies pass on increased costs to the consumer in premiums and co-payments. *The Health Reform narrowly passed with the House of Representatives in Nov 09.

Gov. Jim Doyle announced the state's economic stimulus package will create jobs, help businesses, aid struggling homeowners who are facing foreclosure & use state leverage to improve lending in the state. The slow economy continues to be a main issue.

The Governor signed a bill into law designed to improve quality, safety of Child Care.

7. HEALTH CARE/ISSUES/NEWS & REFORM

It is reported that 50% of all bankruptcies are caused by health care costs. Health Care Reform is concern for individuals, families, businesses and government.

 Spread of H1N1 flu was major concern, and all health facilities working to provide vaccine to the public. Clinics were set up in many Green Bay schools to provide students with nasal vaccine.

President Obama issues an emergency declaration on H1N1 flu, easing requirements of Medicare & Medicaid.

Improved Healthcare facilities for Northeast Wisconsin included: St Elizabeth Hospital in Appleton, WI announced their $65-million expansion, St. Mary's Hospital in Green Bay provides superior surgical care in their new facility which provides the latest updated equipment.

8. BUSINESS & NON-PROFIT GROUP CONCERNS

Businesses have learned from last year's holiday season and have planned inventory accordingly, and more effective use of advertising and pricing. Consumers are spending less, but seasonal sales are brisk.

Frustration continues for the unemployed looking for jobs. Local job fairs have fewer employers present and increased number of people looking for jobs.

House foreclosures continue some businesses downsize or closing their business.

A few Wisconsin industrial employers have grown this year by providing new products. "Manufacturers News Inc." cites Wisconsin as bucking the national trend. Example is Bayland LLC, turning tons of paper industry waste into building materials such as roof tiles, faux brick & panels. Oshkosh Trucking completed a major order for government vehicles. A new phone center in Appleton WI will add new jobs in their call center.

Discount retail stores, such as Walmart, report increased shoppers due to their prices. Resale and consignment shops show increased sales as families try to stay within a reduced budget due to general economic conditions and loss of jobs.

9. MINORITIES, ELDERLY, WOMEN CONCERNS/CIVIL RIGHTS ISSUES

The Green Bay Homeless Shelter is completed after many months of renovation. The need for the facility has increased during the past year, and particularly during winter months. *A local woman who once needed help, makes a full course meal for the Homeless Shelter at her home as a thanks for help when she needed it.

The Salvation Army reports increase in requests from low income families for help with food and clothing as well as holiday gifts.

United Way provided a special Annual Halloween Event for special needs children to be held at the Riverside Ballroom.

MDA held the MDA Stride & Ride Event to raise awareness & funds for disadvantaged.

Annual Women's Day Event held in Green Bay in November to help women improve their career potential.

Hmong American Partnership held a fundraiser because they are losing one-third of their federal funding in 2010.

10. SUBSTANCE ABUSE, INCLUDING DRUGS & ALCOHOL

Alcohol abuse continues to be a problem in WI., and measures are being taken toward prevention. Governor Doyle of WI signs new Drunken Driving Bill as preventative. First-time offense is a misdemeanor, driving drunk is a felony on a 4th offense. Winnebago County's Safe Streets Treatment Program offers help to alcohol addicts.

Mayor Bob Ryan in Sheboygan WI was cited for a drinking problem at council meeting. Citizens concerned and a Sheboygan alderman is asking for his resignation.

Tavern owners & distributors question the proposed tax on alcohol. Date is set for a public hearing on the new tax.

Marijuana for medical purposes may soon be legalized in Wisconsin.

A Shawano County hunter reported a field of marijuana growing in Navarino Marsh. Police apprehended the growers of the massive marijuana operation.

11. AMERICA AT WAR & INTERNATIONAL CONFLICT

The Christmas Day airline attack shook passengers, airline security and mainland security. Apprehended on the plane was a 23-yr-old Nigerian man who claimed ties to al-Quaida and who attempted to blow up a Detroit-bound plane over U.S. airspace. Abdulmutallab was listed in the Terrorist Identities Database. Northwest Airlines is scrutinizing its security measures, including scanning devices used for passengers preparing to board their planes. U.S. Mainland Security is thoroughly investigating connections to al-Quaida terrorists.

Friends and family members of service men and women join in community activities to express support for those who have or had members of their families overseas. Here are examples:

- Families of servicemen in the 432nd Battalion held their Annual Family Day in Little Suamico, WI to bring families together in support of the troops.
- American Legion Unit pack Christmas boxes for soldiers stationed overseas.
- Ft McCoy youth cadets work to build a new home for a local soldier injured and disabled.
- In Madison UW students spend a day packing care packages to be sent to military personnel overseas.
- The fundraiser in Fond du Lac WI raised money for an injured soldier, to help defray expenses as he fights to get back on his feet.
- Green Bay Area School students & American Red Cross create greeting cards and Christmas cards to send to military personnel overseas during the holiday season.

With the increased number of soldiers being sent to fight the war in Iraq & Afghanistan, community residents and veterans showed emotion during all local Veterans Day Memorial Activities. A special event planned for area vets was a special one-day trip to Washington DC to see the National WWII Memorial, an emotional experience for veterans.

The small town of Kiel, WI mourned the loss of Sgt. Nicholas Mueller who died for his country, and as he often said, doing what he wanted to do. He was killed in a helicopter crash in Afghanistan. Many friends and family attended his funeral & memorial service.

Candlelight vigil of hundreds was held at the Veterans Memorial Park to honor Sgt Amy Krueger, who was killed in the shooting rampage in Ft Hood, TX Army Base. Hundreds of family and friends attended her funeral in November. Later in November hundreds of volunteers statewide worked together to fulfill Amy Krueger's request for ammo- quilts to be sent to her unit overseas. In addition, the UW-Whitewater alumni set up a scholarship in Amy Krueger's name.

Wisconsin citizens and concerned that the trial for five accused terrorists will be held in NY City, just blocks from where the Twin Towers fell in 2001.

U.S. and Iraqi officials work fervently to complete a deal that would remove U.S. troops from Baghdad by end of year 2009. Iraq's Deputy Prime Minister said his country still needs U.S. military security.

U.S. air strikes near the Pakistan border have killed high-ranking members of the Taliban's southern military. U.S. officials consider this one of our major victories because it can disrupt Taliban offensive plans.

The nuclear threat by North Korea has all citizens alert to U.N. negotiations and the United States' position. North Korea continues its work on nuclear power, in spite of U.N. talks.
